Let us be reminded that the community in which we live, work, and play is situated on traditional, unceded Algonquin First Nation territory. We acknowledge and thank the Anishinaabe people and express our respect and support for their rich history and culture.

SATURDAY NIGHTS IN SUMMER!

Remember

Do you remember Saturday nights,
Some forty years ago,
When we went walking down
Bridge Street
And wandered to and fro?

The stores would all be open then,
As we paced up and down
To Taylor's Corner, spit and turn Then, back across the town.

Sometimes we had to make our way Past Zion church, in grief,
'Twas nice and dark
down by the side
And there we found relief.

Then, back again to show our stuff
To boys who chanced to roam.
We hoped that one might step right up

And ask to see us home.
Oh for those "Good Old Days" again
When we were in our teens!
But youth has passed, and Grandmas' now
Are just the old Has Beens.

THEN AND NOW HOMES

If you are already one of our facebook friends, you'll be familiar with our series of "Then and Now Homes". When photos and photo albums are donated to the museum we search through them for familiar looking homes and go take a current photo for comparison.

It's one of our more popular features—we now feature 77 houses! We've added this photo album to our website - check it out!

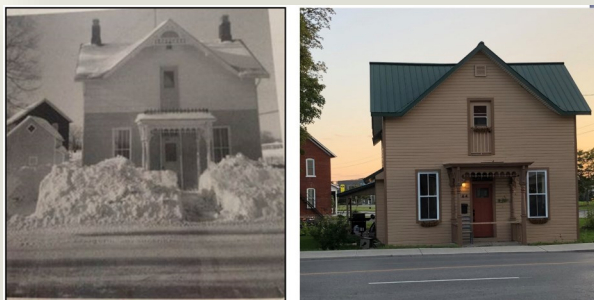

If you have an older photo of your Carleton Place (or Beckwith!) home, send it along and we'll include it.
